

Volunteer Role Description	Steward
Commitment	Wed-Sun, a two-hour shift between 12pm and 4pm, once a week/fortnight/month
Supervisor	Activities & Interpretation Officer
Organisation Information	Turner's House, Sandycombe Lodge, was built by 1813 to the architectural designs of England's great landscape painter, J.M.W. Turner, who wished to create a quiet retreat for himself, away from the pressures of the London art world. Turner's House is committed to extending access to the house and engaging people with both the heritage of the site and the wider story of Turner and his relationship to the local area, which influenced many of his paintings. The house also offers a high quality programme of learning and participation activities for people of all ages.
Purpose of role	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide a high quality, friendly and informative engagement with visitors and be the welcoming face of Turner's House • Support the development of visitors' understanding and appreciation of the arts through engagement with Sandycombe Lodge • Make Sandycombe Lodge accessible for as many people as possible
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide a welcoming presence for visitors to Turner's House • Answer questions from visitors or direct them to an appropriate source of information • Provide assistance to visitors with specific access requirements, if needed • To be vigilant at all times, with regard to the safety and security of visitors, colleagues and yourself and to alert staff of any problems quickly and clearly • Develop a good understanding of the history of Sandycombe Lodge, J.M.W. Turner and his art • Front of house duties, including issuing tickets, feedback forms and selling items from the gift shop
Skills, Attitudes & Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interest in art or heritage • Willingness to learn • Good communication skills • Friendly and proactive character • Reliable • Experience of customer service desirable, but not required • Basic IT skills
Support & Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Induction day • Full training on all aspects of the role and the heritage of the House, including training on our shop and the ticketing system • Regular volunteer information events • Regular updates on the wider activities of Turner's House • Advice and guidance from the Activities & Interpretation Officer • Opportunities for further mentoring and training
Benefits to volunteer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Become part of a friendly and dedicated team • Opportunity to develop new and existing skills • Opportunity to meet new people • A programme of cultural trips and social events • Contribute to the valuable work of making Turner's House available to the public and developing heritage in Twickenham • Gain experience working in the heritage industry
Application Procedure	Application Form Informal Interview

Volunteer Role Description	Steward
Further information	Rita Piglionica, Activities & Interpretation Officer, learning@turnershouse.org